Bio Note

12. (C) Malakauskas has been a close embassy contact for several years. Since 2004, he has been head of Lithuania's Special Investigations Service (Lithuanian acronym STT). He is intelligent and has a positive attitude toward the U.S. He was not, however, as effective as we expected in the STT's main task: fighting corruption. Malakauskas lhd;6%~ e.g., simplifying regulation.

13. (U) From 1992 to 2004, Malakauskas worked at the Ministry of Defense, advancing to the vice minister level. He was a member of the Conservative Party from 1988 to 2004, when he had to suspend his membership to become head of STT. In the mid-1990s he studied Defense issues and English in Norway, Sweden, and the U.S. He received a PhD in physics in 1986 from Vilnius University; subsequently working as a researcher.

14. (U) Malakauskas was born on October 27, 1955. He speaks English and Russian. He is married to Rima Malakauskiene with whom he has two sons. Malakauskas's marriage to Malakauskiene is his third. He has a grown son from his first marriage.
